Substance Abuse Prevention Agency Selects New Communications Director

Columbus – Drug-Free Action Alliance is pleased to announce that Brad Reynolds has been hired as the Communications Director for the agency.

In his position as Communications Director, Reynolds will oversee all internal and external communications for the agency and will provide assistance to lawmakers on policy related to substance abuse prevention.

"We are excited to have Brad join our staff," Executive Director Patricia Harmon said. "We are certain that Brad is going to be a valuable resource in advocating for a drug-free lifestyle."

Reynolds has more than 10 years experience in state government and resides in Upper Arlington.

Drug-Free Action Alliance is a non-profit organization that provides leadership and fosters networks in order to promote safe and drug free communities throughout Ohio. Programs and initiatives include Know!, "Parents Who Host, Lose The Most: Don't be a party to teenage drinking" and the Ohio Red Ribbon Celebration. More information can be found at the website www.DrugFreeActionAlliance.org.
